DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1, 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cao (U.S. Patent US 6,396,607).

Regarding claims 1, 4, and 5, Cao teaches a synchronizer (fig. 1, the combination of elements 20, 22, 32, 24-26, 30, and 40; column 4, lines 17-21) for WDM optical signals comprising: at least one variable delay line (fig. 1, DEKAY 24-26) with an input(fig.1, INPUT 18) receiving RZ-WDM channels (column 8, lines 12-15); at least one delay controller (fig. 1, PHASE CONTROLLER 40; fig.2) generating a control signal depending on the HF power of the RZ-WDM output optical channels (fig. 2; column 9, lines 9-20); a control circuit (fig. 4, PHASE CONTROLLER 40; fig. 2) to control the at least one delay lines (fig. 1, DELAY 24-26) in such a way that the optical WDM channels are synchronized (column 9, lines 9-20).

Regarding claim 6, Cao further teaches that the RZ-WDM channels are synchronized with channel 1 (fig. 2; column 8, lines 65-67 and column 9, lines 1-9).

Regarding claim 7, Cao further teaches that all of the channels are synchronized, therefore, the adjacent channels are synchronized (column 9, lines 9-20).

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 2-3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
